

Thanksgiving

The year has turned its circle,
The seasons come and go.
The harvest all is gathered in
And chilly north winds blow.
Orchards have shared their treasures,
The fields, their yellow grain.
So open wide the doorway-
Thanksgiving comes again!

We have been enjoying some new entertainment, and Christian Choirs over the past few weeks and look forward to having them visit us again as well as trying out some new music programs in the upcoming months.

Thank you to our wonderful volunteers, families, and staff for their assistance and support with our many outdoor summer programs. With the cooler weather approaching, our Residents have lots of wonderful memories of summertime to reminisce with family and friends.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Barb Wakeford,
Activity/Restorative Director
